Many people in Germany speak some English. However, it may be helpful to carry a pocket-sized dictionary with you during your stay.

Most stores and banks are open Monday-Saturday but are not open on Sundays or holidays (see below). Some stores and banks close for lunch from 12:30 – 2:30 pm on weekdays. Banks in Hinterzarten are not open on Saturdays.

NATIONAL HOLIDAYS DURING YOUR STAY

There are no national holidays during our 2025 classes.

RESTAURANTS AND TIPS

Most restaurants accept credit cards. Restaurants in Germany are non-smoking, though they may have a designated smoking lounge. Service and tax is included in the price of your meal/beverage. A modest tip may be given if the service was good/very good or you can simply round off to an even number. For example, if your bill is €13.50 Euros, you may pay €15.00 Euros. Restaurants are open on the weekends and holidays but are usually closed one day during the week.

LUNCH BREAKS DURING THE COURSE

Lunch will be included during the International Földi Days. We are currently looking into the option of including lunch during your days at the Földi Clinic.

An additional note for those with dietary restrictions and/or food allergies:

Restaurants will usually have some gluten-free options and be able to accommodate persons with food allergies. A small selection of gluten-free products is available at the small grocery store next to the Clinic. Note that this store is closed on Sundays; if you are arriving Sunday, plan accordingly. During the week and on Saturday, this store opens at 8:00am.

LOCAL TRIPS ON YOUR DAYS OFF

Freiburg is a larger city near Hinterzarten with a university. You can travel there by train in about 40 minutes. Trains to Freiburg depart every 30 minutes. Day trips to historic sites and other popular tourist destinations can be booked locally with a few days' notice. Guenter has suggested this website for day trips: steiert-reisen.de/index.php (click on "translate" for information in English.)

HOTELS, PENSIONS, and BED & BREAKFASTS (B&B's)

Please be aware that many private Pensions and B&B's do NOT accept credit cards! They may accept travelers checks (in Euros), but most landlords prefer to be paid with cash (in Euros). Please also read the paragraph about Guest Tax

Note: A guest tax will be charged in addition to your room fees. The guest tax is €2.90 EURO ($3.15 USD) per person/per night. Being a guest (tourist) in the village of Hinterzarten, you are eligible to use the local public transportation system (bus and trains) free of charge. This also includes the train rides to and from Freiburg. Important: Because you will be in Hinterzarten on business (taking our course), you are not obliged to pay the guest tax. However, in turn, you will have to pay for local transportation. A verification letter indicating your stay as a business trip will be offered at the beginning of the class. Guenter's recommendation: Please advise your landlord that you want to be treated as a tourist. Pay the guest tax as if you were a tourist and enjoy the free public transportation (local buses and trains)!

In addition, some hotels and guesthouses will be offering the Hochschwarzwald Card (Black Forest Card), included in their accommodation rate. However, many of the above listed accommodations do NOT offer this benefit so be sure to pay attention when you are making your reservations. This card includes the guest tax and provides free local public transportation and free access to many local attractions including boating trips, golf courses, museums, events, and the newly-built indoor Water World (badeparadies-schwarzwald.de) in Titisee. Please pay attention whether this special offer (the Hochschwarzwald Card) is included or not, when making your accommodations selection. In Guenter's opinion, this is a wonderful added benefit.

We hope the above information will help you prepare for your stay in Germany. We look forward to seeing you there! If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact us at:
